Connecticut Folklore: Fact or Fiction?

Guide for Curriculum Unit 87.04.07
by Carolyn F. Stephenson

Connecticut is a state of vast resources, one of which is its legends. These legends may be used as a teaching tool for 6th grade students who are studying Connecticut history as a major part of their social studies curriculum. The study of Connecticut history is made fun and interesting by expanding and enhancing it through the method of reading.

(Recommended for Connecticut History classes, grade 6)
